

Book a Send a Cow speaker for your school or group - for free!

Our UK-wide network of Ambassador speakers can help with your Read to Feed fundraising and introduce Africa and Send a Cow to your class.

They can:

- give lively, interactive and informative talks to bring Send a Cow's work to life
- use PowerPoints, images and video to highlight the challenges faced by many African children
- tailor presentations to fit an area of learning and the Read to Feed fundraising you are involved in
- attend an event to accept donations and express our thanks

Some of our Ambassadors will have visited our projects first hand and will be able to talk about their own experiences of meeting children from African countries.

To book an Ambassador for your school or group, fill in the form below. Alternatively, contact Jodie Sampson, our Ambassador Bookings Secretary, on (01531) 821 751, or email her: jodie.sampson@sendacow.org.uk.

'Presentations by your Ambassador gave us recent information about where and how all the money is used. We enjoyed the puppets and their useful products! Thank you for coming.'
